Interviewer: Good morning! How are you this morning?
You: I'm fine, thanks. I'm happy that you called me for a personal interview.

I: Could you say why you are looking for a new job?
You: The reason why I'm looking for a new job is that
I want to work for an international company / I found my previous workplace unchallenging / I moved here not long ago / unfortunately, the company I worked for went bankrupt.

I: Could you tell me a few words about yourself?
You: I'm ... years old, I live in ... . I studied at ... Secondary School, graduated in IT at A level, I can speak .... languages at ... level. I'm interested in sports and films and I really enjoy ....ing in my free time.

I: Do you have any work experience?
You: I have a 5-year work experience as a software developer. I worked for ... company from 2010-2015. My work experience involves doing both backend and frontend tasks.
I know different technologies which make communication possible between client and server sides. For example I can program it in PHP (Personal Hypertext Preprocessor).
Furthermore, I am good at designing, creating and managing databases.
As for the client side I can use SQL (Structured Query Language) and I have already worked with HTML5, Javascript, CSS3 and jQuery.
I was also responsible for making complex web applications which you can see as my reference work.

I: What are your strengths and weaknesses?
You: Basically I am hardworking, precise and flexible. I am good at performing my tasks within deadlines. I am never late and I am willing to do some overtime if it is required. I am a great teamplayer as I believe in cooperation.
Sometimes I am a bit impatient but working with different colleagues has taught me that it is not necessary to do things in a rush as for good work, time is needed.

I: Why do you want to work for us?
You: I've heard that your company has good reputation in the IT sector with great statistics. I want to be the member of a good team where I can gain some practical experience.

I: Where do you see yourself in five years from now?
You: It's my ambition to work at a challenging place where I can improve my skills and get higher on the career ladder.

I: Are you planning for further studies?
You: I am ready to develop my professional skills as well as my language competence, so I can imagine to have further studies besides working.

I: What do you know about our company?
You: I've heard that you are one of the market leaders in software development. You have been successful for many years and have a reliable management. Different web forums also provide good reviews about the company.

I: Do you have any questions?
You: Could you tell me if I had the opportunity for further eduction or professional training within the company? / I would like to know something about the working hours at your company. / Can you tell me which part of the year is the busiest at your company? / I am interested if the salary includes any perks or bonuses?
